Absolute Surrender

Great explanation of our need to abide in Christ and surrender fully to Him to do and direct as He pleases. As a pastor I kept feeling like I had to figure out how to make the church grow, but God reminded me that it is His church to lead and I need to pause long enough to hear His voice to know how to lead the people in being His church.

Our absolute surrender is the only appropriate response. Also, our surrender to Him is active obedience (Romans 12:1-2) and trust in Him. John Owen's little book "the mortification of sin" would be a good follow up to illustrate that we will always be putting to death the flesh by the power of the Spirit.

Absolute Surrender by Andrew Murray - Goodreads

The longing questions of my hungry heart and the "how to live an absolutely surrendered life to God has been very effectively and life-alteringly covered in this work by Bro. Andrew Murray. I rated this book 5 stars because he covers quite a bit of information very efficiently. The pace was engaging, and I had to make myself put the book down.
