Getting dressed can have a lot of steps. It helps to break it down into smaller steps - for example, putting on underwear, then t-shirt, shorts, socks and shoes. You can also break down each of the steps in getting dressed, depending on your child's skill and age. For example, you could break down the steps for putting on shorts like this:

The 'Get Dressed Hide & Seek game' does just that. It gamifies the chore of choosing clothes and getting dressed and offers kids an exciting reason to want to do what you need them to do, that is, get a move on. And if the house gets quiet for a few minutes and you can watch a full segment on the morning news, well then all the better.
