The Me I Wanna Be - Cape Christian

I wanna be me, I wanna be me I wanna be the me you used to see Sitting on a lily pad That would make me very glad I wanna be me, I wanna be me I want to sigh when tiny bugs go by And croak a little lullaby to each gnat and flea and fly (croaks) Oh, I wanna be me Let me hop, hop, hop Let me splish and splash Let me romp around in a swamp

I want enough energy to get me through my day. I don't want it to come in the form of a drink or a pill, but instead let it come from my spinning chakra wheels. But... Really, I just wanna be me. Hunchback, old, tired, poor, imperfect Me. Already praying adamantly with a twinkle in my eye and a song in my heart.

However, this was a pretty fun game but like the other reviews some spots in the game made me want to stop playing. This game has an abundance of upward planes that I didn't find too bad just added to the experience of the game for me. The difficulty balance and the save balancing were very bad as some saves were very easy and some extremely hard.
